to go to war—and he was sorry for me and used to give me bits of his own rations, but—now no one will give me anything. Take me back; she won't care. She's dead, they say. Besides, I wouldn't stay here now if she was alive and breathing. I have had enough of war since he— Oh, he was so much."

I looked at the boy with an odd sensation for which I have no name. "Whom are you talking about?" I asked. "Your mother—your sister?" "Oh, no!" The tone was simplicity itself. "Never had no mother. I mean the lady at the big house; the one that was married. She gave me money to go out of Washington, and, wanting to be a soldier, I followed Curly Jim. I didn't think he'd die; he looked so strong—What's the matter, sir? Have I said anything I shouldn't?"

I had him by the arm. I fear that I was shaking him. "The lady?" I repeated. "She who was married—who gave you money? Wasn't it Mrs. Jeffrey?"

"Yes, I believe that was the name of the man she married. I didn't know him, but I saw her."

"Where? And why did she give you money? I will take you home with me if you tell me the truth about it."

The boy who ran away from the florist's

He glanced back at the tent from which I had slightly drawn him and a hungry look crept into his eyes.

"Well, it's no secret now," he muttered. "He used to say I must keep my mouth shut, but he wouldn't say so now if he knew I could get home by telling. He used to be sorry for me, he used. What do you want to know?"

"Why Mrs. Jeffrey gave you money to leave Washington."

The boy trembled, drew a step away and then came back, and under those hot Florida skies in the turmoil of departing troops I heard these words:

"Because I heard what she said to Jim."

I felt my heart go down, then up, up, beyond anything I had ever experienced in my whole life. The way before me was not closed then. A witness yet remained, though Jim was dead. The boy was oblivious of my emotion. He was staring with great mournfulness at the tent.

"And what was that?" said I.

His attention, which had been wandering, came back, and it was with some surprise he said:

"It was not much. She told him to take the gentleman into the library. But it was the library where men died, and he just went and died there, too, you remember, and Jim said he wasn't ever going to speak of it, and so I promised not to either, but—but—when do you think you will be starting, sir?"

I did not answer him. I was feeling very queer, as men feel, I suppose, who in some crisis or event recognize an unexpected interposition of Providence.

"Are you the boy who ran away from the florist's in Washington?" I inquired when ready to speak.

The boy delivered Miss Moore's bridal bouquet?

"Yes, sir."

I let go of his hand and sat down. Surely there was a power greater than chance governing this matter. Through what devious ways and from what unexpected sources had I come upon this knowledge?

"Mrs. Jeffrey, or Miss Moore, as she was then, told Jim to take the gentleman into the library." I now said. "Why?"

"I don't know. He told her the gentleman's name, and then she whispered him that. I heard her, and that was why I got money too. But it's all gone now. Oh, sir, when are you going back?"

I started to my feet. Was it in answer to this appeal or because I realized that I had come at last upon a clew calling for immediate action?

"I am going now," said I, "and you are going with me. Run, for the train we take leaves inside of ten minutes. My business here is over."

Made Visit to Panama.

Panama, Nov. 25.—The American congressional party was met at the station by a committee of residents, General Davis, commander of the canal zone; John Findley Wallace, engineer in charge of construction of the canal, and Minister Barrett. Subsequently the party called on President Amador, to whom they were introduced as well as to Mrs. Amador and other ladies, the secretary of state and other high government officials. After a drive around Ancon hill and through the hospital grounds the congressional party returned to Colon.

Valentine of the Iron Molders' Union of North America, who was arrested in Cleveland on a warrant sworn out by President Gogler of the Eureka Foundry company on the charge of aiding and abetting in the malicious destruction of property, arrived in Cincinnati last night, accompanied by Detective Callahan. On a bond of $2,000, signed by Michael Mulien, a councilman, Valentine was at once released to appear in police court next Monday.

BATTLE IMMINENT

Renewed Skirmishing Shows a State of Preparedness at the Front.

MORE SEVERE FIGHTING

The Japanese Were Again Heavily Repulsed In Another Attack on "Lone Tree" Hill.

Absence of Official Advice Leads to Belief That Active Operations Are Nearing.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 25.—Unofficial advice only bring affairs at the front up to Nov. 23 and the absence of official news of later date, either from the Japanese or the Russian side, arouses the belief that more important operations than heretofore may be progressing. Reports from correspondents at the front indicate renewed skirmishing, culminating the night of Nov. 22 in a fresh attack on Poutloff (Lone Tree) hill, in which the Japanese were repulsed with heavy loss, and also a severe fight with Chinese bandits near Kaiman, in which 200 Chinese were killed.

SOME FIERCE FIGHTING

Poutloff Hill Again the Scene of a Hot Engagement.

Mukden, Nov. 25.—The Japanese made a fresh attack on Poutloff hill the night of Nov. 22. Their advancing ranks were decimated by the Russian shell fire. Some of the Japanese secured lodgment on the slopes of the hill, but were driven out at the point of the bayonet, when the whole Japanese contingent fled. A similar attempt was made the same night south of Erdagou, which also was repulsed with a bayonet charge.

The Japanese lost heavily, while the Russian loss was thirty killed.

A band of 1,500 Chinese bandits with six guns, under Japanese officers, coming from the direction of Liao river, was in conflict with three troops of border scouts near the station of Kaiman, early on the morning of Nov. 23. The scouts charged without giving the bandits' battery time to come into action. The bandits made feeble resistance and fled in all directions, leaving 200 of their number dead.

The Russian loss was trifling.

A Japanese column of two companies attempted to penetrate the Russian eastern flank on Nov. 23, but was met by two squadrons of Russian cavalry and driven off with severe loss.

Don Jaime Decorated.

Mukden, Nov. 25.—Don Jaime of Bourbon, son of Don Carlos, the Spaniard, was decorated with the order of St. Anne with swords for gallantry in several battles.

DON JAIME.

ish pretender, has been decorated with the order of St. Anne with swords for gallantry in several battles.

Soldiers Not Forgotten.

Tokio, Nov. 25.—Several charitable organizations headed by the ladies of the patriotic societies, are arranging to send New Year's presents to every soldier in the field. The contributions already assured indicate that there will be enough to give each soldier two presents. The people of Tokio are contributing thousands of packages, each containing a number of useful articles.

Fortes Held by Japs.

Headquarters of the Third Japanese Army before Port Arthur, Nov. 24, via Fusan, Nov. 25.—The only permanent forts in the possession of the Japanese are the two Panlung forts captured in August. They hold the advance works of the Rihlung redoubt, called Fort Kurokita, an entrenched hill fortified "P" fort, Koku hill, Sachitaki Yama and 174 meter hill.

Tragedy on Broadway.

New York, Nov. 25.—Guy Roche, a sporting man who killed "Sheeny George" Levy nine years ago, was shot and probably fatally wounded late yesterday afternoon in Broadway between 35th and 36th streets, while the avenue was thronged with holiday promenaders. Stewart Felton, known as "Big Frank," also a sporting man, was arrested charged with having fired the shot. He denies the charge.

Religious Processions Restricted.

Havana, Nov. 25.—The house committee has reported favorably the bill prohibiting religious processions or functions except within churches.

WORLD'S FAIR GUESTS

The Presidential Party Now En Route to St. Louis.

Washington, Nov. 25.—President Roosevelt left here at midnight for a visit to the St. Louis exposition. He was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Secretary and Mrs. Loeb, Surgeon General Rixey of the navy, M. C. Latta of the executive office and representatives of the press associations. The party occupied a special train on the Pennsylvania railroad which is scheduled to arrive at St. Louis Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. An interesting program which will take up all the president's time while in the exposition city has been prepared by the local committee. Saturday will be spent in visiting various points in the exposition grounds. At night the presidential party will attend a banquet in the main building of the Tyrolean Alps, at which probably 600 or more people will be present. It is anticipated that the president will not make any speeches on his trip, although it is not improbable he will make some impromptu remarks at the Saturday evening function. Sunday will be passed quietly in St. Louis, and at midnight the president and his party will leave on their special train for Washington, arriving here at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Strike is Still on.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 25.—The strike of the 400 employees of the Kelly Island lime and transportation company which began at Marblehead Monday is still on. Mayor Eberwein has sworn in a number of extra policemen. All the saloons on the island have been closed by order of the mayor. The company's proposition of an increase of wages of 10 cents per day for men receiving $1.40 per day was rejected and the men say they will stay out for their original request of an advance of 20 cents a day.

Young Woman Murdered.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—With six bullet wounds in the chest and head and the throat cut, the body of Carrie Reinhold, aged twenty-two years, a servant employed at the country residence of Robert F. Broadhead, a wealthy citizen of Stratford, a suburb fifteen miles from this city, was found last evening in the kitchen of Mr. Broadhead's handsome home. The entire Broadhead family was away visiting over Thanksgiving day, and nothing is known as to who killed the young woman.

The Mystery Deepens.

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 25.—J. W. Wicks, the Pontiac liverman who was arrested as a suspect in the Bate murder case, will be released, as it has been clearly demonstrated that he is not "Dove." The officials here held him in the belief that he might be wanted on other charges. The police declare there are no new clues in the murder mystery today.

Perilous Passage Ended.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 25.—The steamer Stord, from Sydney, C. B., with coal, for whose safety fears were felt, arrived in this harbor last evening. The Stord was driven seaward in Sunday's gale and her machinery disabled. She was nine days making the passage from Sydney to St. Johns, whereas ordinarily the trip requires only forty-eight hours.

Killed in Runaway.

Albia, Ill., Nov. 25.—A horse driven by Prof. and Mrs. H. C. Hollingsworth ran away last evening. Mrs. Hollingsworth was killed and the professor's arms and jaws were broken. He will probably die. Mr. Hollingsworth is president of the Southeastern Iowa Teachers' association.

A $90,000 Blaze.

Minneapolis, Nov. 25.—Fire last night destroyed the old Hill building owned by President J. J. Hill of the Great Northern railroad and occupied by three firms, insuring a total loss of $90,000.

IT IS TO LAUGH

British Critic Says America Ought to Be Called "Usona."

A HINT OF JEALOUSY

The Larger Title "America" Is Based on an Unwarranted Assumption, He Declares.

Sir Edward Clarke at American Society Banquet Raises a Question of Territory.

London, Nov. 25.—The annual Thanksgiving banquet of the American Society at the Hotel Cecil last night was marked by the presentation to Ambassador Choate of a portrait of himself painted by Hubert Herkemer and paid for by subscriptions by members of the society. An unusual note for such a gathering was introduced by Sir Edward Clarke, who, proposing Mr. Choate's health, sarcastically derided the title "American" ambassador, declaring that the word American implied domination over the whole of the Western hemisphere, which the United States does not possess and is not entitled to, as Great Britain is territorially a larger power on the American continent than the United States. Sir Edward suggested that a more suitable title would be Usona, signifying United States of North America.

EMBASSADOR JOSEPH H. CHOATE.

Having in the first public criticism here of the state department's order that embassies hereafter shall be called "American," thus uttered a "respectful protest" against the assumption of the larger name, Sir Edward Clarke proceeded to refer to the miserable under-payment of American judges and American waste of energies in providing for survivors of the civil war, and in building ironclads which she could never use.

Ambassador Choate, replying, said that Americans were quite satisfied with their name, and then referred to the recent election in the United States as a splendid tribute of devotion and affection to a great man. Having remarked upon the regeneration of public life in America, regardless of party, now in progress, Mr. Choate alluded to the ever-growing friendship between Great Britain and America as reason for thanksgiving and added: "I asked Lord Lansdowne if he was ready to negotiate a treaty of arbitration. 'Why,' said Lord Lansdowne, 'it goes without saying.'"

Continuing, Mr. Choate maintained that many things go without saying between Great Britain and America, above all that they should avoid all possible causes of offense and settle all differences by peaceful means.

He paid a high tribute to the Archbishop of Canterbury's "Rediscovery of America," and dilated upon the value of visits to America by such men as the archbishop and John Morley. The Archbishop of Canterbury, proposing the health of President Roosevelt, expressed his sincere thanks for the great hospitality with which he was received in America. He said America faced problems greater than the world had ever seen, but by a stroke of genius had found the man to conquer the difficulties. "We on this side," said the archbishop, "not less than brothers to you across the Atlantic, thank God and take courage because the destinies of America are safe in Roosevelt's hands."

Major Delmar Changes Hands.

New York, Nov. 25.—Major Delmar, the world's champion trotting gelding, was sold at the Old Glory sale at the Madison Square Garden for $15,000. The purchaser was C. K. G. Billings, owner of Lou Dillon. It was announced that Mr. Billings would race Major Delmar and Lou Dillon in an effort to beat the world's record.

Cartoonist Neelan Dying.

Cave Springs, Ga., Nov. 25.—Charles Neelan, the New York cartoonist who has been here for some time in search of health, is slowly sinking and the attending physicians have abandoned all hope. His wife and sister are at his bedside. The cartoonist's home is in Akron, Ohio.

The Last of the Trio.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Otis Loveland, the last of the trio of robbers who killed George Geyer, a farmer, near Alton, Ohio, more than a year ago, was electrocuted in the annex at the Ohio penitentiary a few minutes past midnight.

Crackmen in Maryland.

A HOLIDAY RESPITE

Politicians Took Day Off but Are Again Hard at Work.

Indianapolis, Nov. 25.—While holidays ordinarily make little difference to the professional politician, the Thanksgiving season was observed this year notwithstanding the fact that an active canvass for the United States senatorship was in progress. At all events the activity about the various headquarters of the candidates was not up to that of other days this week. While none of the headquarters was actually closed, many of the active boomers for the various favorites in the race had gone home to spend the day with their families. There was one reason for this which gave the workers a respite. This was the fact that most of the members of the legislature and the Republicans generally over the state have a fondness for spending holidays at home. As the politicians were not in the city the managers of the various candidates had an opportunity to run home themselves. The vacation was not for long, however. Today the workers were back at the headquarters, and if possible the stir was greater than before the Thanksgiving holiday. In the next few days there will, be some hard work done. The congressional delegation which is in the field seeking the senatorship will have to leave for Washington with the opening of congress, and their allies are doing their utmost to clinch the prize before their candidates are called away.

The report of State Superintendent Cotton with the various recommendations he makes for improvements in the public school system of the state has been attracting a great deal of attention. Mr. Cotton has been advancing ideas which were considered good years ago, but which in the advance of "new fangled" notions have largely dropped into disuse. He believes more attention should be given to the primary educational subjects, in other words that the "three R's" are as important as in the days when they embraced practically the whole curriculum. The manner of teaching is another point on which he has strong ideas, and he is not afraid of telling his opinions. Children should be encouraged to do well, he argues. Sarcasm and scoldings he believes tend to make the child ill-natured and anxious to learn. The purposes of education are thus balked. He also believes the pupils should be taught to do things well even if the variety of their accomplishments is lessened in bringing this about. On the whole his report is an interesting and important document.

The fuel gas war in Indianapolis and the insurance rate question are two matters which are still giving the city authorities plenty to think about. Mayor Holtzman says if the gas company attempts to supply gas for fuel purposes it must put in double meters, so that the rate of 50 cents as fixed in the new ordinance can be charged. John R. Pearson of the gas company says his company will resist. The company makes only one kind of gas, he says. If people wish to buy illuminating gas and use it for fuel purposes, he declares that it is neither the company's nor the city's affair, and that the regular 90-cent rate will be charged. The insurance companies have ordered the advance in rates and so far all efforts to induce the Western Insurance Union to change its action have failed.

Indianapolis will see one of the greatest gymnastic exhibitions ever witnessed next June when the turner-fest of the National Turner society is held here. It is expected that athletes and members of the various turner societies from all parts of the world will attend. Invitations have just been sent out by the committee in charge of the affair, the North American Turners and Mayor Holtzman inviting representatives of turner societies in seven foreign countries to attend the gathering. These invitations will be forwarded to the societies through the state department at Washington and are sure to be accepted by many foreigners.

Had Narrow Escape.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 25.—The three-story building occupied by the W. H. Small Grain company collapsed under the weight of grain stored there-in, and five persons were buried in the debris. These included W. H. Small, president of the company, with four female employees, all of whom were rescued with little injury.

Crackmen in Maryland.

La Plata, Md., Nov. 25.—A number of men blew up and practically destroyed the building of the Southern Maryland Savings bank early this morning. They secured $3,000. The robbers escaped, cutting telegraph and telephone wires before leaving.

CHAPTER XIX.

WHEN I started on this desperate search after a witness, I had been declared, but no advance as yet ordered on Cuba. I wandered from one end of the camp to the other till I finally encountered a petty officer who gave signs of being a rough rider. Him I stopped and, with some hint of my business, asked where James Calvert could be found.

His answer was a stare and a gesture toward the hospital tents. Nothing could have astonished me more.

"Sick?" I cried.

"Dying," was his answer.

Dying! Curly Jim! Impossible! I had misled my informant as to the exact man I wanted, or else there were two James Calverts in Tampa. Curly Jim, the former cowboy, was not the fellow to succumb in camp before he had ever smelt powder.

"It is James Calvert of the First volunteer corps I am after," said I. "A sturdy fellow?"

"No doubt, no doubt. Many sturdy fellows are down. He's down to stay. Typhoid, you know. Bad case. No hope from the start. Pity, but—"

I heard no more. Dying! Curly Jim!

HOW TO HOLD A HUSBAND.

The best known guide to married happiness is to hold the husband as you won the lover—by cheerfulness of disposition, patience and keeping your youthful looks. Of course a great many women are handicapped by those ills to which women are heir. The constantly recurring troubles which afflict her are apt to cause a sour disposition, nervousness and a beleaguered mind.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, the specialist in woman's diseases, of Buffalo, N. Y., after a long experience in treating such diseases, found that certain roots and herbs made into a liquid extract, would help the majority of cases. This he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Thousands of women have testified to its merits, and it is put up in shape to be easily procured and is sold by all medicine dealers. This is a potent tonic for the womanly system. So much faith has Dr. Pierce in its merits that he offers $500 reward for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Proflapsus, or Falling of Womb, which he cannot cure. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure.

Mrs. T. Dolan, of Madrid, Perkins Co., Neb., writes: "I was cured of painful periods by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and his Compound Extract of Smartweed. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the best in the world."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send a one-cent stamp for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The death of Curly Jim

He started. They all saw it. On the threshold of death, some emotion—we never knew what one drew him back for an instant, and the pale cheek showed a suspicion of color. Though the eyes did not open, the lips moved, and I caught these words:

"Keep word—told no one—she was so!"

And that was all. He died the next instant.

Bending under this stroke of Providence, I passed out. A little boy was sobbing at the tent door. I stared at him curiously and was hurrying on when I felt myself caught by the hand.

"Take me with you," cried a choked and frightened voice in my ear. "I have no friend here now he is gone. Take me back to Washington."

Washington! I turned and looked at the lad, who, kneeling in the hot sand at the door of the tent, was clutching me with imploring hands.

"Who are you?" I asked, "and how came you here? Do you belong to the army?"

"I helped care for his horse," he whispered. "He found me smuggled on board the train—for I was bound court next Monday."

J. C. SMITH, Editor and Publisher.
W. A. REMY, Editor and Publisher.

Published at the Seymour, Indiana Postoffice as Second class Matter.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1904.

THE Kokomo Tribune announces the support of the legislators of the ninth district for Charles B. Landis for U. S. Senator to succeed Fairbanks.

THE marked increase of independent voting by men of all parties is illustrated quite forcibly by the following table, compiled by the New York Globe, showing the difference between the vote for president and for governor, at the recent election:

State.	Roosevelt.	Governor.
Colorado.....	15,000	15,000 dem
Massachusetts.....	18,000	35,000 dem
Michigan.....	160,000	50,000 rep
Minnesota.....	122,000	15,000 dem
Missouri.....	28,000	30,000 dem
New Jersey.....	60,000	40,000 rep
New York.....	176,000	80,000 rep
Rhode Island.....	10,000	600 rep
West Virginia.....	25,000	10,000 rep
Wisconsin.....	125,000	50,000 rep

If you will take your pencil and resort to a little simple mathematics you will find that these ten states show a difference of 680,000 votes as between president and the governors.

A Story of Senator Vest.

On a certain occasion Mr. Vest had returned to the senate after one of his brief absences. Senator Hoar of Massachusetts, four years his senior, met him in the lobby and chided him good naturedly for not attending strictly to business when vital measures were being debated. "You're a fine young man," said Mr. Hoar, "to absent yourself at such a time and leave us old fellows, Cockrell and me and the rest, to handle these matters."

"You'll never be as old as I," said Vest, "if you live fifty years longer."

"Bless you, I was born in 1826 and was preparing for college before you came into the world," said the Massachusetts man.

"If you were born in 1726 you wouldn't be as old as I," said the Missourian. "You and Cockrell will see years, but you will never see age. You haven't lived as long as I have, and I am wishing sometimes that I hadn't," he said, with a weary smile.—Kansas City Star.

Life in Virginia in 1648.

In the old days in this country farming and manufacturing were carried on together to a very large extent. A letter written from Virginia in 1648 gives the following picture of life on the plantation of a certain Captain Matthews, a leading citizen of the colony: "He hath a fine house and all things answerable to it. He sows yearly store of hemp and flax and causes it to be spun. He keeps weavers and hath a tan house, causes leather to be dressed, hath eight shoemakers employed in their trade, hath forty negro servants and brings them up to trades in his house. He yearly sows abundance of wheat, barley, etc. The wheat he selleth at 4 shillings the bushel. He kills store of beaves and sells them to victual the ships when they come thither. He hath abundance of kine, a brave dairy, swine great store and poultry."

Snake Venom.

The action of snake venom on cold blooded animals has been tested by Dr. Noguchi in a long series of experiments. Three venoms were employed—viz, those of the cobra, water moccasin and rattlesnake. Snakes and frogs succumb easily to cobra venom, but are relatively insusceptible to the other venoms. Turtles are more susceptible to all venoms than the foregoing, and fish are still more so. The grasshopper and some crabs are almost insusceptible, while the lobster is only moderately resistant. Excepting the earthworm, all the worms showed a low degree of susceptibility. The venoms have little effect on the echinodermata; sea urchins succumbed, however, but starfish and sea cucumbers were not perceptibly affected.—London Nature.

Had Narrow Escape.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 25.—The three-story building occupied by the W. H. Small Grain company collapsed under the weight of grain stored therein, and five persons were buried in the debris. These included W. H. Small, president of the company, with four female employees, all of whom were rescued with but little injury.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Excellent Sermon Preached By Rev. J. A. Sargent.

The annual Thanksgiving union service was held at the Christian church yesterday morning. A good attendance heard the excellent sermon delivered by Rev. J. A. Sargent from the text, "Blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might be unto our God forever and ever. Amen."—Rev. 7:12.

It is a subject for thankfulness that our rulers set apart a day of Thanksgiving because it gives us opportunity to reflect upon the mercies of God and to cultivate a spirit of gratitude, and because our rulers acknowledge the Christian's God as the God of nations. This has been a year of unusual blessings to us as a nation, as states, communities and as individuals. We should be thankful for the National life we enjoy and for the marvelous growth we have attained. Ours is a MANHOOD government based upon the idea of the equal rights, responsibilities and patriotism of all our citizens. Our government has been a growth and a triumph of personal liberty, of political equality and of unrestricted religious freedom. Permeating the civil life is the divine government which comes "without observation" with its laws, its faith and its worship giving fullest liberty and protection. This divine government eludes all the senses but it permeates all with its vital energy.

We should be thankful for the Bible, our highest text book of faith, of philanthropy and of social law. We should be thankful for the church of Jesus Christ which consecrates the individual, teaches childhood the way of truth, sanctifies the marriage altar, and pours its precious comforts on the bereaved. We should be thankful for the Sabbath which gives us rest from the unremitting toil of the week. We should be thankful for the silent force of law which gives us security in our rights and privileges as American citizens.

While we have many things for which to be thankful, let us not forget there are some things to deplore, and chief among these is the liquor traffic. The saloon must go because it defies the fundamental principles of economics. It destroys physical vigor, it despoils our youth, it usurps political power, it plunders the home, it is the council chamber of sin and vice. It necessitates hospitals, asylums and is the greatest foe to the laboring man because it destroys the fruit of industry and is not a producer.

We should oppose any effort to destroy our public school system, "the bulwark of our strength and the guarantee of our safety."

We must guard the holy Sabbath. God who gave us our time has laid his hand upon one day in seven and called it His. On that day we are asked to think of Him, to commune with Him, to rest in Him. The Sabbath was made for man but not for man to destroy. Two institutions survived the Fall of man, one of which is the Sabbath, mercifully given for the rest and development of man. The other institution is the Home. Our government did not create marriage. Its origin is of God. But our government recognizes the sanctity of the marriage relation and home protection is one of its highest functions. Much of our success as well as happiness depends upon the character of our homes. The home life here should be a type of the home beyond where there is no sorrow nor tears, beautiful home with God.

At the close of the sermon the collection amounting to $15.50 was taken which will be distributed among the churches represented in the union service to be used for the poor in their congregations.

Russian Women Toppers.

If Russian sayings and proverbs are a true index the position of women within the czar's dominions is not to be envied. Here are some adages: "The head of a woman is as empty as the purse of a Tartar." "A woman without fear is bolder than a goat." "If you beat your wife in the morning don't forget to do it again in the afternoon." "Hit your wife with the handle of your axe; she is no pitcher to break at the first blow." "If you beat a fur it becomes warmer, and if you beat your wife she will be more true to you."

Feminine Financier.

Mrs. Kidder—Charles, can't you give me another check? I see you have a whole book full. Mr. Kidder—That doesn't signify, dear. I have used up my balance at the bank. Mrs. Kidder—Then why didn't you give up your check book? Now, it's no use for you to tell stories, Joseph Kidder. If you mean to say I shouldn't have any money, why don't you say so right out, like a man?—Boston Transcript.

Lived Too Fast.

"Poor fellow, he is quite broken down, and the doctor says that his condition is due to fast living."

"Fast living?"

"Yes; you see he is a traveling man, and he was obliged to eat so many dining car meals and lose so much sleep in sleepers that his constitution gave way."—Cleveland Leader.

Laura—Alice Fitter is such a restless friend, Charles—Restful? She talks all the time. Laura—That's it. I never have to think about what to say when I'm with her.

The Jackson county teachers association convened at the Presbyterian church Friday morning. The attendance is large, most of the teachers of the county being present.

The session was called to order by County Superintendent J. E. Payne. After devotional exercises a reading from Riley was given by Mr. Kirk, who was a chance visitor at the association. Mr. Kirk is an admirer of our beloved Hoosier poet, and his reading was greatly enjoyed.

The morning program was fully carried out and the subjects carefully discussed by the teachers.

Pleasant Surprise.

One of the most pleasant events of the season was a surprise reception given on Thanksgiving afternoon by Mesdames Donaldson, Shields, Hadley and Hill, at the home of Mrs. Donaldson in honor of Mrs. M. C. Carpenter, who has been in the east for the past year and a half. The house was filled with ladies of the Baptist church.

Promptly at 3 p. m. a telephone message was sent to Mrs. Carpenter that she was wanted at Mrs. Donaldson's at once. "She came, she saw and she was conquered."

The surprise was a success in every particular. Mrs. Shields delivered the welcome home, and Mrs. Carpenter responded in her own pleasing and effective manner, occasionally removing her glasses presumably that she might better make herself understood. A short musical program had been prepared, dainty refreshments were served and a pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present.

ROYAL TONIC.

Beats Anything We Ever Sold as a Strength Creator and Body-builder.

W. F. Peter Drug Co. Enthusiastic Over This Delicious Cod Liver Oil Tonic Which Contains No Oil.

"We sell many tonics," said Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co. "We have demands for many so-called strength creators."

"We handle all kinds of remedies that claim to be invigorators. We do this because we are druggists, and it is our business to supply the public with that which they want."

"When our advice, is asked, however as to a tonic and re-builder, strength creator and an appetite producer we invariably recommend Vinol. We do this because we know all about Vinol. We know all that it contains, and will tell you it is not a secret patent medicine. We have sold enormous quantities of it, and we have had every opportunity offered us to watch the results that have been accomplished by the use of this wonderful re-builder."

"If you have not yet had occasion to use such a tonic we would like to have you call on us, and learn why we are so enthusiastic about this scientific remedy."

"Vinol contains all the curative principles in a highly concentrated form that are found in cod liver oil. It does not contain, however, any of the obnoxious, digestion destroying grease that always proved to be such a drawback to what otherwise would have been a most valuable remedy. We wish you would remember Vinol, and bear in mind that as a blood enricher and flesh creator for old and young and as a wonderful aid to digestion we know of nothing that will compare with it."

"Such is our faith in Vinol that we will gladly refund to any one who is not satisfied the price they have paid us for it." W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; sediment or floating particles indicate unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

JUST LIKE BOYS

Royalty Relaxes and Engages in Play With Zest.
London, Nov. 25.—King Charles of Portugal and his party spent the last day of their visit at Chatsworth shooting in the pheasant preserves. The king, who is a magnificent shot, did great execution. The whole district was covered with deep snow, but the day was bright. Queen Amelia and the ladies of her suite joined the party at lunch in a big marquee. While awaiting the ladies, King Charles and the other shooters threw snowballs at a mark.

This was too tame for the king, who, catching Marquis Desoveral, the Portuguese ambassador to Great Britain, off his guard, made an accurate shot at the dignified diplomat. King Charles' example was quickly followed, and the whole party engaged like schoolboys in an active snow battle. While none of the missiles was actually aimed at his majesty, a number of distinguished personages were less fortunate. For some minutes the fun was fast and furious, the king being the most active and one of the most accurate among the fighters.

The whole of the unusual incident was greatly enjoyed by a large number of spectators and rustics who had gathered near by in the roadway.

A Heavy Load.
To lift that load off of the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach and all disorders of the stomach that are curable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure S. P. Storrs, a druggist at 297 Main street, New Britain, Conn., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles. Sold by A. J. Pellens and W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Honored the Requisition.
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 25.—Governor Yates has issued a warrant on a requisition from the governor of Indiana for the return to Laporte county, Indiana, of William Davis, a former convict, and Mary Davis, his wife, wanted there on a charge of murder, and now under arrest at Woodstock, Ill. It is charged that on Sept. 23 William and Mary Davis shot and killed Jacob Harmon Efferts of Chicago, near Wilders, Laporte county.

Important Archaeological Discovery.
El Paso, Tex., Nov. 25.—Miners have broken into a cavern containing two dozen mummies near Silver City, N. M. Buried with the mummies were stone weapons and instruments showing that they belonged to a prehistoric race. The persons were apparently about five feet tall in life. Their heads were small and their arms long. The cave is 100 feet below the surface of the earth.

A Good Complexion.
"Sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks restored by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers," so writes S. P. Moore, of Nacogdoches, Tex. A certain cure for biliousness, constipation, etc. Small pill—easy to take—easy to act. Sold by A. J. Pellens and W. F. Peter Drug Co.

"and used it for a stubborn case of piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by A. J. Pellens and W. F. Peter Drug Co.

CHRONIC SORES

Wheeling, W. Va., May 28, 1903.
Some years ago while at work, I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were healed up the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely cure up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broke out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred. Having been so signally benefited by its use I can heartily recommend it as the one great blood purifier.
JOHN W. FUNDIS.
Care Schulback Brewing Co.

Chronic sores start often from a pimple, scratch, bruise or boil, and while salves, washes and powders are beneficial, the unhealthy matter in the blood must be driven out or the sore will continue to eat and spread. S. S. S. reaches these old sores through the blood, removes all impurities and poisons, builds up the entire system and strengthens the circulation. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined. Contains no mineral whatever but is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you have an old sore write us and our physicians will advise you. Book on diseases of the blood free.

The colony is in a ferment, there being partisans to both sides of the trouble which brought on the killing, and the authorities of Washington county look for further bloodshed.

IN SEYMOUR.
Every Claim is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Seymour what can it be?
Mrs. Jesse Buckles, of Indianapolis avenue says: "In the spring of 1899 I suffered severely from backache and secured Doan's Kidney Pills at C. W. Milhous' drug store. I had dull aching and acute lameness in my loins which inconvenienced me when rising from a chair or attempting to lift anything. The Kidney secretions were embarrassing and I was troubled with nervousness and attacks of dizziness. Doan's Kidney Pills promptly relieved me. They were quick to invigorate my kidneys and strengthen my back. After taking the treatment my general health was better for a long time."

Sold by all dealers, price 50c per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Fatal Handcar Wreck.
Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 25.—A hand-car driven by six trackmen on the Kokomo-Greenfield interurban railway struck a stone that had been placed on the rails half a mile west of Greentown and the car and its passengers were thrown down a steep embankment. Stafford, postmaster, of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during sudden and terrible attack of croup. Peter Drug Co.
